

The writings on the wall
Got to get to number one
What the hell is happening?
What have they done?
There's a time, there's a place
We do not fit, make no mistake
Look around there's fucking violence
Sit at home and hear the sirens
Can't watch the news, it's too depressing
What the fuck is happening?
Running with the riots
Smashing windows, starting fires
Sirens from the other side
Too many cars are burnt outside
A time bomb situation
Feel the tension, everybody's waiting
They're waiting for the right time
Waiting for the right sign
