

The Path

Broken Bones

Broken feelings, nothing to say
It's getting closer, got find my way
My path is blocked, my vision ain't clear
I want to touch, but feel insecure
I'm lost in my emotions
List in life
New day awakenings
I'm lost in old surroundings
My self control is running low
Don't push too hard, I might just blow
You push me down, I see you falling
I look at you, I see you laughing
Your mind's a secret
Your body's sacred
People have killed for you
Don't do as I say
Do as I say
