

American Gypsy

Broken Iris

When the lights go out I go insane
If the sun comes up I see her face
And when the moon is shining I scream her name
I pray she can feel my love from miles away

She don't sleep at night, she waits for the sun
[?] demons when the angels are sleeping
([?], one by one)

Dare you stare in her eyes
She'll read your mind, hypnotize
Like a gypsy creeping through the night
She'll steal your heart, she still has mine

My gypsy
Dream catch me
Those mystic eyes
They haunt my dreams

I'm letting go
I set you free
Just fly away, [?]
And pray
That you come back to me
My gypsy queen

The moon, the sun, and sky
Made a pact
To love her forever
Or feel their wrath

So while we wait in vain
A crownless king in shame
Praying for the day
She will bring the sun back to me
Just come back to me
I love you so I set you free
My gypsy queen
