

Clouded Son

Broken Iris

If I could see your eyes
I'd wipe your tears dry
If you could ease this pain
Would you, would you
Touch that again, it's hurting

If you could see me now
Would you be disappointed or proud?
I've tried to reach out
Scream your name out loud
I, wish I could see you now

Only you could lift this head up
Only you could nail these hands down
You've got more power than any god
Anyone, clouded son
I wish I could see you eye to eye

Clouded son
My clouded son
Sweet little one
My clouded son

If I could see you smile
I'd finally rest a while
I've heard your silent screams
And now I'm here to hear you out
If I could see you now
I'd be so goddamn proud

Of you
Only you, only you

Only you could tear this heart up
Only you could nail these hands down
You've got more power than any god
Anyone, clouded son
I wish I could see you eye to eye

To eye, to eye
To eye, to eye
To eye, to eye
To eye, to eye

Clouded son
My clouded son
Sweet little one
My clouded son
