

Dreamin

BRONCHO

I must walk the night with a grin, amen
I must hold the pain, I must lean in it
When I recall that night, it's a sin, amen
I must hold the pain
I was dreaming

Baby, it's alright, it's alright with me
Taking in your time, in your time for me
Angel, it's alright, it's alright with me
Making any old time, any old time for me

I must walk the night with a grin, amen
I must hold the pain, I must lean in it
When I recall that night, it's a sin, amen
I must hold the pain
I was dreaming

I am so and you say so, oh
So it's all alright
Make it so if you say so and
They say so, alright
Maybe I would love to say no
Then say so, alright
Maybe it's all you love to know
I'm trying

Angel, it's alright, it's alright with me
Making any old time, any old time for me

I must walk the night with a grin, amen
I must hold the pain, I must lean in it
When I recall that night, it's a sin, amen
I must hold the pain
I was dreaming
