DAWN

BRONSON

Take a step forward
Lost in a darkness
Trust yourself, let go
And breathe in a lush air

Take a step forward
Lost in a darkness
Trust yourself, let go
And breathe in a lush air

Calling for the hero
Here comes a big rush
If only for tomorrow
Hold on and push up

Never give it up
Save yourself from doubt
Never give it up
Save yourself from doubt
Never give it up
Save yourself from doubt

Never give it up
Save yourself from doubt
Never give it up
Save yourself from doubt
