

Mister, Mister

Bronze Radio Return

Hey mister, mister, you can have my day but you better leave my nights alone
I'm leaving in the evening, then I'll be goin home Hey mister, mister you can have me pay but I'm never yours to o wn

Only I, it's the night when I want it and only I, so leave my n ight alone

I put a face on to wear through the day It's a heavy uniform hanging on me, but here I am to do what I have to Noddin my head, hummin the drum, going through the motion Moving, carry on until the sundown calls the time that I'll be gone

Only I, it's the night when I want it and only I gotta let it g o
Only I, it's the time and I want it. Only I, alone

nights alone
I'm leaving in the evening, then I'll be goin home
wn
I'll give you every day but the nights are just one

You can tell me what to say, tell me what to do, throw me any w ay that you want to She won't ever make me work the night through Cause I've got places to go, people to see Got my mind set on the sunset to separate me from this grindsto ne, carving out my way back home

Only I, only I, only I, in the night is when I want it Only I, only I, so leave my night alone

Hey mister, mister, you can have my day but you better leave my
nights alone
I'm leaving in the evening, then I'll be goin home
Hey mister, mister you can have me pay but I'm never yours to o
wn
I'll give you every day but the nights are just one

You can tie me up for a moment and I'll earn what I owe You can't tie me up, you better let me go Hey mister, mister, you can have my day but you better leave my
nights alone

wn
