

Natural Rattle

Bronze Radio Return

I hear the commotion and that's okay
'Cause we're in motion, I can feel the sway
There's nothing to fear my friend, oh no
It's the natural rattle

When the ground is shaking and the thunder roars
I wouldn't worry - it's just a storm
I just let my body pulse
To the natural rattle

So unwind, but don't unravel
We can't help but be a little fragile
Through the clatters and sudden crackles
Are the sounds
Of the natural rattle
Vibrating us all
The natural rattle
Vibrating us all

I hear the ruckus all day and night
The world is noisy and that's alright
Every sound is just a piece
Of the natural rattle

So unwind, but don't unravel
We can't help but be a little fragile
Through the clatters and sudden crackles
Are the sounds
Of the natural rattle
Vibrating us all
The natural rattle
Vibrating us all
