

The Same Changes

Bronze Radio Return

So maybe I'm full grown
But I don't feel older yet
Maybe I'm too young
To wanna get older yet
Or maybe I'll face it
Everyone changes

I'd see ya on the weeknight
We go way back when
I know I'm not the same old
Kid I was way back then
Now the only thing same is everyone changing

So once again
The same changes
What's same changes
Time and again
It's funny how I feel the same when
Everyone around me changes

I'm too sentimental
But I'll get over it
I'm watching ya kids grow up
Do you feel older yet?
Maybe I'm waiting
Putting off changing...

So once again
The same changes
What's same changes
Time and again
It's funny how I feel the same when
Everyone around me changes

The same things will change
There's no controlling it
The same things will change
There's no controlling it
But what you get to choose is who you grow older with Grow older with
So get over it

The same changes
The same changes
The same changes...
