Brook Benton

Where did you get those beautiful eyes honey, honey
Where did you get those beautiful eyes babe, oh babe
Where did you get those beautiful eyes
Eyes that hide such beautiful lies
Honey, oh honey babe

I'm takin' you to the country store now honey
I'm a-takin' you to the country store babe, oh babe
I'm takin' you to the country store
I'm gonna spend my cash and I'll wait for more
Honey, oh honey babe

You've got my heart now lend me your hand now honey
You've got my heart now lend me your hand, oh babe, oh babe
You got my heart now lend me your hand
You can have my house and all of my land
Now honey, you better believe me babe

I got a ring that'll fit you fine honey
I got a ring that'll fit you fine babe
I got a ring that'll fit you fine
We're gonna get married sure this time
Honey, oh honey babe

Honey, honey babe
