

Dumb In Love

Brooke Alexx

I don't have the patience for a douchebag
Cut 'em off as soon as there's a red flag
You won't catch me waiting for a text back
I'm not like that

I won't treat a sinner like he's holy
I learned from my mistakes, I'm not the old me
I don't let a loser get to know me
Now I'm lonely

Playing it safe hasn't got me too far
I guess that it's the price that I'm paying for tryna be smart

I wanna be dumb in love
And think everyone's the one
Make out on the first date, move in on the second
Three weeks in and I'm already meeting both your parents
I wanna be dumb in love
Pretend I don't know you suck
Tell my friends the pros and forget all of the cons
Say I didn't see it coming when it all goes wrong
I wanna be

Happy 'cause at least I got a plus one
Having someone is better than having no one
Maybe if I care less, I'll have more luck
Been cutting my losses, I'm running all out of my options

Playing it safe hasn't got me too far
I guess that it's the price that I'm paying for tryna be smart

I wanna be dumb in love
And think everyone's the one
Make out on the first date, move in on the second
Three weeks in and I'm already meeting both your parents
I wanna be dumb in love
Pretend I don't know you suck
Tell my friends the pros and forget all of the cons
Say I didn't see it coming when it all goes wrong
I wanna be

Dumb in love
Stupid, clueless, falling for 'em too quick
Dumb in love
Following my heart like every other human

Dumb in love
Stupid, clueless, falling for 'em too quick
Dumb in love
Following my heart like every other human

I don't have the patience for a douchebag
