

Move To LA (I Don't Wanna)

Brooke Alexx

I got a list of unsolicited advice
I leave the house and it gets longer every time
I got that kind of face, I guess
I don't know why people think that they can tell me everything that's on their minds

And up 'til now, I've let it slide
But I'm done being nice

Everyone knows better than me
Share what they think, they tell me for free
Pick at my clothes
They wanna see a little more skin
Be the girl of their dreams
Right now, I'm good
But I could be great
There's just a few things I need to change
I swear to God, I'm gonna break
If I hear one more motherfucker say
Move to LA

I don't wanna
Move to LA
I don't wanna

It's like it don't matter what I do
Nothing's ever good enough for you
Always something else I gotta prove
On and on, the list goes on and on and on and on and

Everyone knows better than me
Share what they think, they tell me for free
Pick at my clothes
They wanna see a little more skin
Be the girl of their dreams
Right now, I'm good
But I could be great
There's just a few things I need to change
I swear to God, I'm gonna break
If I hear one more motherfucker say
Move to LA

I don't wanna
Move to LA
I don't wanna
Move to LA
I don't wanna
Move to LA
I don't wanna
Move to LA
