

Perfect

Brooke Alexx

I'm a mess
I do my makeup in the car
Pulling up 6:30 when I told you 6 o'clock
I admit
I'm always 'bout to fall apart
But you would never notice 'cause I make you think I'm not

You say you know me
But you don't, but you don't, but you don't
Make it look easy
What a joke, what a joke
Looks can be deceiving, could let you see the real me

But I'll let you think I'm perfect
Fake smiling 'cause it's working
Cover up my problems, so you don't know I got 'em
I'll let you think I'm perfect

I'm a wreck
I get stressed out and put up walls
And I take it out on my mom like every time she calls
At my best
I'm still worried 'bout my flaws
But you would never notice 'cause you think I got it all

You say you know me
But you don't, but you don't, but you don't
Make it look easy
What a joke, what a joke
Looks can be deceiving, could let you see the real me

But I'll let you think I'm perfect
Fake smiling 'cause it's working
Cover up my problems, so you don't know I got 'em
I'll let you think I'm perfect

You say you know me
I'm scared what you'll think

So I'll let you think I'm perfect
Fake smiling 'cause it's working
Cover up my problems, so you don't know I got 'em
I'll let you think I'm perfect
