

Avalanche

Brooke Hogan

You had to go there
Baby, you knew, it wouldn't take much
Your hands on my skin
Lovin' the way you're messing me up
We've been playing on the edge
Tryin' not to take a step
But it was just a matter of time
We gave it a good try
Oh, we gave it a good try

Baby, tonight
All we can do is hold on tight
We've broken the ice, and we're fallin' fast
It's a hell of a sign
We tried holding back, but we don't stand a chance
Against this avalanche

Lost and tangled, tumbling down, out of control
We're losing sight of why it took this long letting go
There's a thrill inside the drop like it's never gonna stop
We're not afraid of caving in

Baby, tonight
All we can do is hold on tight
We've broken the ice, and we're fallin' fast
It's a hell of a sign
We tried holding back, but we don't stand a chance
Against this avalanche

Letting it take us
Letting it take us
Down
Letting it take us
Letting it take us
Down

Baby, tonight
All we can do is hold on tight
We've broken the ice, and we're fallin' fast
It's a hell of a sign
We tried holding back, but we don't stand a chance
Against this avalanche
No, no, no
Against this avalanche

Letting it take us
Letting it take us
Down, down
Letting it take us
Down, down
