

daddy's little girl

Brooke Hogan

I am in your live love and custody
And when I'm not you still can trust in me
I need your arms to cover me but not smuther me
You can not shelter me from the world
And I'll always be your little girl
He can never be what you are to me your the biggest part of me
Can't I love him too?

Daddy he is no comparison to you
Don't make me chose who I love the most no
Cause I can find a way to love you both

Ever just wanna stumble and fall
Not knowing if your ever gonna get caught
Ever wish everything was your fault
My heart has broken in two don't make me listen to you
Daddy please don't make me chose between the two
Daddy he is no comparison to you
Don't make me chose
It'll always be me and you
But what I want most is a way to love you both
