

Hero

Brooke Hogan

You're everything I ever want
It's in the writing on the wall
You know that I'll be waiting here
So go ahead and take it all
But if you come in
Is what I always knew
And if you run
I'll be right there for you

'Cause I've been waiting for you all day
So take my heart and give me hope
I'm afraid no one no one save me
So will you be my hero?
Cause everything's gone away
And I can't wait another day
I'm gonna letting all go
So will you be my hero?

I wanna pass the point of done
But you know how to take control
And if loving me is what you want
Then I won't let go
I know you'll save me
Its written in the stars
Its everything we truly are

'Cause I've been waiting for you all day
So take my heart and give me hope
I'm afraid no one no one save me
So will you be my hero?
Cause everything's gone away
And I can't wait another day
I'm gonna letting all go
So will you be my hero?

I'm afraid no one no one save me
So will you be my hero?
Cause everything's gone away
And I can't wait another day
I'm gonna letting all go
So will you be my hero?
Will you be my hero?
Will you be my hero?
I'm gonna letting all go
So will you be my hero?
