

Waiting on the Stars

Brooke White

Never felt a love so strong
Feeling life has just begun
I see the world now through your eyes
So innocent and pure inside
I'll hold you in my arms tonight

Waiting for the stars to come
Feel the sky, watch them shine like diamonds
Hung above the world, so high, for you and I
Dream, sweet child, until tomorrow

Mama keep you safe and warm
Never will you feel alone
Tucked up in your cozy bed
There's magic in your dreams ahead
So close your eyes, my tiny friend

Waiting for the stars to come
Feel the sky, watch them shine like diamonds
Hung above the world, so high, for you and I
Dream, sweet child, until tomorrow

Close your eyes
Close your eyes
Close your eyes
Lost inside a lullaby, my love
Waiting on the stars to come
Waiting on the stars to come

Waiting for the stars to come
Feel the sky, watch them shine like diamonds
Hung above the world, so high, for you and I
Dream, sweet child, until tomorrow

Waiting for the stars to come
Feel the sky, watch them shine like diamonds
Hung above the world, so high, for you and I
Dream, sweet child, until tomorrow
