

Life's a Heartbeat

Bros

Never look down on a lesser man
Don't judge a book by its cover
One man's duties in his life
Just might not fit another's

Remember the steps that you once climbed
For him the ladder might be higher
Never judge a book by its cover

(CHORUS)

So life's a heart beat for you
Take it with two hands don't lose it
Font let it stop on you
Gotta keep it beating
Gotta keep it beating should'n do (beating just for you) if you feel you should mimic the things you see you should wipe the mirror clean you might not be so pretty you might be shocked by what you see

Remember the steps that you once climbed
For him the ladder might be higher
Never judge a book by its cover

(CHORUS)

Doesn't matter what you wear
Its just a shell
We can live in heaven
Not in hell
Beauty and beast rich and poor
We should all have an open door

(CHORUS)
