

I Surrender

Brother Cane

Hangin' on me heavy like some weathered word
That tired love illusion turned me inside
While the sands of my belief washed away and out of reach
You were blue sky
All the see-through memories of you were there
Hiding in a kaleidoscope disguise
Were you so unaware, that I was unaware
You would be there for all time
Take me I surrender
Shine your light on me
I surrender everything
Shining like the morning light it's everywhere
A new day is upon us can you realize
The past has brought us to this space
Angels in a better place,
To the sky
Take me I surrender
Shine your light on me
I surrender everything
Take me I surrender
Save me from this pain
I surrender everything, everything
