

I'll Take You Higher Than High

Brotherhood of Man

Now I found ya today
Gonna lock you away
'Cause I'll never find another you
No, I'll never find another you
I ain't gonna try

I'll come by everyday
Just to see your okay
'Cause by then you would have known a score
Then I'll kiss you more and more and more
Then we're gonna fly

Higher than any two people can fly high
I'll take you higher than high, high
'Cause we're gonna make it tonight
Higher, higher than stars in the sky, high
Now that I found you, you're my guy
I'll take you higher than high, high

Take this love that I give
And together we'll live
In our little secret hideaway
Then we'll throw the key away
Forever we'll stay

If you give me a chance
Then we'll start a romance
And I'll take you on a magic ride
Then they'll be no need to hide
Or lock you away

Higher than any two people can fly high
I'll take you higher than high, high
'Cause we're gonna make it tonight
Higher, higher than stars in the sky, high
Now that I found you, you're my guy
I'll take you higher than high, high

Higher than any two people can fly high
I'll take you higher than high, high
'Cause we're gonna make it tonight
Higher, higher than stars in the sky, high
Now that I found you
