Ber-ser-kir

He fights - he fights until he wins or dies
No fear - no fear can touch him now
In a sea of raging blood, the warrior cannot control
The burning of this violent flood, the madness in his soul

He shouts - his shout will bring you crashing down
Attack - no one can save you now
Outnumbered he will charge into the carnage of the battle
He's a savage and a maniac, a mountain of a man

Slaughter embodied, a storm in disguise
A monster of battle, get ready to die
He seeks and destroys, no escape from his might
He fights for his life and he lives for the fight

Enter fury, enter rage
See the madness in his gaze
Unbreakable
A creature - out of control
Enter fire, enter death
Smell the blood upon his breath
Man or beast?
Destruction released

He strikes - he's got the power to pound you to the ground
You're dead, your face is facing down
No matter where you're running to
He will be chasing after you
A slayer and a murderer, he's a death machine

Slaughter embodied, a storm in disguise
A monster of battle, get ready to die

Enter fury, enter rage
See the madness in his gaze
Unbreakable
A creature - out of control
Enter fire, enter death
Smell the blood upon his breath
Man or beast?
Destruction released

Here is the wolf, disguised as a bear
Here is the beast, who knows no fear
