

In the sign of the sun, where I find my inspiration
I gain the power of the warrior
Pure and controlled, just like the rays of justice
She will illuminate the darkest soul

Give me strength, lead the way
Resisting the dark, there will be no death today
Rising up into the sky
With steel and the sun by my side

To victory! Turning my gaze to the night
Victorious and glorious we stand
My destiny! This is my only fight
The champion of light
And my flame is burning bright

When hatred is near, and your heart requires vengeance
On the day of judgment, she will show the way
Rise above to be the better warrior
No time to spill when there is justice to bring

Give me strength, lead the way
Resisting the dark, there will be no death today
Rising up into the sky
With steel and the sun by my side

To victory! Turning my gaze to the night
Victorious and glorious we stand
My destiny! This is my only fight
The champion of light
And my flame is burning bright

Give me strength, lead the way
Resisting the dark, there will be no death today
Rising up into the sky
With steel and the sun by my side

To victory! Turning my gaze to the night
Victorious and glorious we stand
My destiny! This is my only fight
The champion of light
And my flame is burning bright
