

Say Goodbye

Bru-C

Focus on the pain, it'll break your mind
Take another day, it's okay to cry
There's another way, please don't take your life
Now isn't the time to say goodbye
I don't wanna see another mate of mine
Look up to the sky and pray to die
Will I be next in the waiting line?
Now isn't the time to say goodbye

Don't say goodbye
I promise that I'll make the time
We can share the pain inside
Just please don't say goodbye
Don't say goodbye
I promise that I'll make the time
Share the pain inside
Just please don't say goodbye
No, no, no-oh, eh-eh
Just please don't say goodbye
No, no, no-no-no-no, no, no, no, no, yeah yeah

Yo, I just lost another friend
Now I'm feeling pain
Thinking about the ends
It'll never ever be the same
Thinking 'bout the times I tried to leave this place
I just disappear, my family don't hear from me for days
I close my eyes, I can just see Liam's face
But I'm glad that at least you're gonna see Rhys again
Do they really care, like those people claim?
Got the fucking nerve to say it's okay not to be okay
It's not okay to not reach out when you're not feeling good
It's not okay to not make effort when you really could
It's not okay that we've been locked away
We're caught, so raise up
Most the country's in the mud
But what is next?
I link up with friends and pay respects
Only time I seem to see them is to celebrate a death
You gotta fight through the pain, you gotta take the stress
There's no waking up once you make your bed, nah

In the UK there are eighteen suicides a day
Seventy-five per cent of suicides are men under forty
One in three men experience suicidal thoughts
Talking about suicide saves lives
Whether you are, or you know someone thinking about suicide
Speak out, please
Rest in peace Liam Maud
Rest in peace Rhys Baldwin
