

Snakes & Ladders

Bru-C

I've been slowly sinking falling
Gotta pick myself up in the morning
Coz everyday can be so daunting
On my own
I am so dehydrated
Thinking of the (bru-c) things that I'm facing
God knows that I gotta be straight here (original sounds)
My head, my head is waving
So that I can't hold a conversation
Smiling the truth is all over my face

My anxiety's frying me
Feel like I'm dying G
Don't know where I'm tryna go
Don't know who I'm tryna be
I'm my own boss that means nobody can fire me
But I'm feeling pressure and the failure it frightens me
You can never silence me
When I told my boys I'm getting a
Booking I wasn't talking about a library
Lots of man come and go
Bru-c boys timeless beat
Lots of man come and go
Bru-c boys timeless beat
And I've got more in my lyric up
Pad moving loud let me break a piece and bill it up
Wide eyed couldn't give a fuck im tryna live it up
If you've got the right energy then come and chill with us
I need some focus in life
Don't think I'm all there I've got a hole in my mind
Life is a gamble better hope that you're nice
Can't really play the game unless you're rolling the dice

Just let me in
Another day, I wanna see one more
You brought me in and let me go
I just want to know more
Now here's the day to finally say
That I can't take no more
You roll the dice, now that took twice
The diamonds let you go

Running and running away
Don't know how to act or what to say
And when you are not looking my way
I wanna get more and more in your face
Running and running away
Don't know how act or what to say
And when you are not looking my way
I wanna get more and more in your face

This life's a game of snakes and ladders
Take your opportunity to climb up and raise your status
This life's a game of snakes and ladders
If you tryna climb up with a snake you need a major balance
This life's a game of snakes and ladders
And when you reach the top you got a smile on your face your laughing

This life's a game of snakes and ladders
Hit the ground so hard that the mother fucking pavement shatters
This life's a game of snakes and ladders
Take your opportunity to climb up and raise your status
This life's a game of snakes and ladders
If you tryna climb up with a snake you need a major balance
This life's a game of snakes and ladders
And when you reach the top you got a smile on your face your laughing
This life's a game of snakes and ladders
I've been slowly sinking falling

Running and running away
Don't know how to act or what to say
And when you are not looking my way
I wanna get more and more in your face
Running and running away
Don't know how to act or what to say
And when you are not looking my way
I wanna get more and more in your face
