

Chemical Wedding

Bruce Dickinson

Emi

1. How happy is the human soul

Cmi

Not enslaved by dull control
Left to dream and roam and play
Shed the guilt of former days
Walking on the foggy shore
Watch the waves come rolling home
Through the veil of pale moonlight
My shadow stretches out its hand...

R: And so we lay, we lay in the same grave

2. Floating in the endless blue

My seed of doubt I leave to you
Let it wither on the ground
Treat it like a plague you found
All my dreams that were outside
In living colour, now alive

Ami Cmi

And all the lighthouses

Ami Cmi Ami

Their beams converge to guide me home...

R: And so we lay... (2x)
