

Candy's Boy

Bruce Springsteen

E A E E A E

E In Candy's room their are pictures of her savior on the wall A E

E But to get to Candy's room, you've got to walk the darkness of A E
Candy's hall

C#m Asm

A Strangers from the city call my baby's number, and they bring C Am
andy toys

E But when I come knockin', she smiles pretty, she knows tonight B
I'm gonna be

E Candy's boy

E Well in the olden days when the Mongolian gangs rode herd out o A E n route nine

E We'd go ridin' in the rain, runnin' south, way down through the A E pines

C#m Asm

A Weekends in the sun in that cheap motel down by the Dynamo Am

E We loved each other till their was nothing left, and drove that B old car as

E hard and fast as she would go

C#m Asm A Am
Well like a cold winter wind blowin'in babe I needed you

E But Candy's got a man who takes care of her better than I do B E

E Well there's machine and there's fire, waitin' for us on the ed A E
ge of town

E And there's some rough boys for hire, and they're waitin' to bl A ow me and

E Candy down it's all right cause they can't touch us now they'll C#m Asm A never

Am destroy

E My sweet love, B for I will forever be E Candy's boy..hmm hmm hnmhm m hmm hmm A

E my sweet love,
B I will forever be E Candy's boy
