Chain Lightning

Bruce Springsteen

Hey!

Well there's a rumble in the park, there's a thunder in the dar k
The night's so quiet, it's chain lightning
Beneath a street light two boys bopping in the night
They have something in 'em called chain lightning

Though you never hear a sound, there's a fire underground
Rambling through the town, you can't keep it from coming down
Lovers walking through the mist, Romeo he steal a kiss
Caught up in the moment of chain lightning

Heyyy, hey!

Now I don't know about romance, but baby it's the latest thing
Everybody's getting up, doing it, chain lightning
All along the strand baby down in jungleland
Everybody's caught up in chain lightning

Ever hear the sound of a fire underground
Rumbling through the town, the big cold is coming down
Sitting at the light, I'm a rider in the night
Streaking light to light for chain lightning

Hey!
Hey! Hey! Hey hey hey! Hey! Hey!
Hey! Hey! Hey! Hey! Hey! Heyyy!

I ain't into style, baby, ain't into fashion
I just got a passion for chain lightning
Sitting at the light, I'm a rider in the night
Streaking light to light for chain lightning

Yeah
Aw!
