Lonely Night In The Park

Bruce Springsteen

Johnny got an angel dancing topless
At night down in Toyland
Where the blondies and the supergirls offer
A sad look and soft hands
And if you're looking for someone
To steal your heart
Someone tough enough to take it
Someone to keep it or to tear it apart
Someone to love you, someone to fake it

Lonely night in the park
Oh lonely night in the park
Oh lonely lonely lonely lonely night
Lonely lonely lonely lonely night in the park

Well there's some dudes at
The door givin' talk
There's a lady at the bar, that's right
Slip off your stool and you
Step through the rubble
This is your chance, you're going to take it
If she can dance, you can make it
She takes off her shoes and
Runs down the beach
Oh she's as soft as the night
You fall and she crawls within your reach
Let her drag you down on the sand
And try to make it all right, ohhh

Lonely night in the park
Oh lonely night in the park
Oh lonely lonely lonely lonely night
Lonely lonely lonely lonely night in the park

And the boardwalk is so quiet
At three in the morning
The lonely wind breath life
Into a Ferris wheel
Somehow tonight this street seems so boring
Raped and ravaged, with no secrets to reveal
Ohhh watch yourself now!

Well the bars close down and the
Lonesome armies they run for cover
The lost boys and their pick ups
Man they hate each other
Ah and you're drinking 'neath the Pier with Kid Blue
And Kid gets sick and throws up on your shoes
And you're thinking of making it home
Oh but your mom can't see
You like this all alone
Yeah you're walking down the street and
No one knows your name
Standing on the corner looking for
The light to change
Sitting on the picket, light by light

Line by line they got nothing left but time

Lonely night in the park
Oh lonely night in the park
Oh lonely lonely lonely lonely night
Lonely lonely lonely lonely night in the park

Hey little stranger, what you doing tonight?

Lonely lonely lonely lonely night
Lonely lonely lonely lonely night
Lonely lonely lonely lonely night
Lonely lonely lonely lonely night
Lonely lonely lonely lonely night
Lonely lonely lonely lonely night
Lonely lonely lonely lonely night
Lonely lonely lonely lonely night
