

Seaside Bar Song

Bruce Springsteen

Well Billy bought a Chevy '40 coupe deluxe

A

Chrome wheels, stick shift, hey give her gas, pop the clutch

E

B

Little girls on the corner like a diamond they shine

E

A

Someday Billy I'm gonna make 'em all mine

E

Hey girl, you wanna ride in Daddy's Cadillac?

A

'Cause I love the way your long hair falls down your back

B

Bo Diddley, Bo Diddley's at the Seaside Bar

E

A

We'll run barefoot in the sand, listen to his guitar

C#m

You say your mama's gonna meet you when the morning comes

A

And your papa's gonna beat you 'cause he knows you're out on the run

E

I'm gonna live a life of love and tonight you're the one

Asm

F#m

The highway is alive tonight so baby do not be frightened

Asm

There's something about a pretty girl on a sweet summer night

C#m B

C#m B C#m B

That gets this boy excited

Asm

C#m

The radio man finally understands and plays you something you can move to

F#m

Asm

You lay back, cut loose your drive power

A

B A

Asm F#m

Asm A

A

Your girl leans over and says, "Daddy, can you turn that radio up any

Asm F#m Asm F#m

louder?"

E

The juke joint's hummin', everybody came down

A

Little Willie and his Soul Brooms laying all this stuff now

B

Well don't let that daylight steal your soul

E

B

E

Get in your wheels and roll, roll, roll, roll, roll, roll, roll, roll

Oh that's all right now

C#m

Oh mama's gonna meet you when the morning comes

A

And your daddy's gonna beat you 'cause he knows you're out on the run

E

But I don't care, I wanna live a life of love while the night's still young

All right now
