

Twilight Hours

Bruce Springsteen

I'll see you in the twilight hours
As the morning light brushes the evening stars away
As the darkness gives way to the light
Of another long and lonely day
I'll see you in the twilight hours

I'll see you in the twilight hours
Together, we'll close down our favorite café
One last drink, and the night unwinds
As we walk underneath a new morning sky
I'll see you in the twilight hours

Let's not throw our love away
Let's learn to live and love another day
With your heart in mine, this place and time are ours
I'll see you in the twilight hours

Put your hand in mine
We'll walk underneath a new morning sky
I'll see you in the twilight hours
In the twilight hours
In the twilight hours
