

Nothing Left

Bruno Mars

Used to light up when I called to say "I love you"
But these days, maybe these words don't hit the same
Uh
All alone in this home that we built just thinking of you
Thought our light would never fade away

But the fire don't burn like it used to, girl, no
Don't wanna let you go, but you know something's got to change

Feels like I'm (I'm), I'm reaching out
With nothing left to hold on to
Feels like I'm (I'm), I'm reaching out

I, I, I, I'm looking for the magic, I can't seem to find it in your eyes
The smile on your face that I used to make is long been gone
Uh
And it kills me to think somewhere I lost my baby
Oh, we been together so long

But the fire don't burn like it used to, girl, no
Don't wanna let you go, but you know something's got to change,
got to change

Feels like I'm (I'm), I'm reaching out
Feels like I'm (I'm), I'm reaching out

Baby
Yeah, yeah, oh

It feels like I'm (I'm), I'm, I'm reaching out
Feels like I'm (I'm), I'm reaching out

Something's gotta change
We can't let our love slip away
I'm reaching out for you, baby
I need you to reach out and do the same
Come on
Ooh-ooh
Oh-oh
I'm
