

Falling Down

Brutal Attack

Sometimes I feel like I'm running under water
Sometimes I feels like it's me against the world
I'm made to feel I'm doing something I shouldn't 'oughta
Nobody listens to me, my stories never told

Backed up against the wall
Nothing left for me to do but fall
Down, down I'm falling down
I'm going under I'm gonna drown

No-one else sees what I see through these eyes
I'm made to feel I'm I'm the only who's ever sinned
Can't nobody else see through all of these lies
Sometimes it's just like I'm pissing in the wind

All they hear is what they want and all they hear is lies
Always cast as the bad man and kicked when I'm down
The pain I feel is something that you'll never realize
Just like the day without sunshine, like the tears of a clown
