

Through The Darkness

Brutal Attack

I once had a dream and that dream was freedom but dreams don't ever come true I've been there and I've seen them You know nothing is fair and I mean nothing at all tell me who will step forward the very moment I fall

Through the darkness you shine like a diamond in my memory through the darkness of time to real peace for you and me

Look hard to find a person for the road it will never end only the love of my nation will make sure my heart mends the pain is so much harder now and my blood it runs like rain free me from this darkness so I can fight again

Now the warrior he is standing with his brave face turned to the sun below him the masses gather now for him the battle is now let the coward hang his head in shame and let the loyal take the sword for freedom now and forever lets not forget his words

I once had a drem.....

I will never forget you to you I owe it all so come and take my hand now and make sure I don't fall
