

When Odin Calls

Brutal Attack

A hero falls when Odin calls
A valiant heart is carried away
Forever to feast in Valhalla's halls
And in our hearts a name will stay

When Odin calls, even the strongest falls
When he's called away has it come his day

Even the strongest warrior can fall
Cannot resist mighty Odin's call
Leaving this battle there is no shame
For another will rise and carry on your name

So as the longboat leaves this shore
So shall rise 10.000 more
Men who's only aim is to win
Men who know that to die is no sin

Ashes to ashes and dust to dust
In Odin's name carry on we must
And for the fallen those so brave
The fight goes on until the grave
