

Lust for Power

Brutality

Margins of profit dominate
Their care
Lusting for power, ignoring despair
Careless misuse of people,
Places,
And things
All for money, and power,
And pleasures they bring

Lusting for power
On quest for control
Opposition devoured
Greed taking its toll

Wheels are turning
Power churning
Masses weaken and decay
Will of people suppressed by Evil
God of power holding sway

To hold the scepter in your Hand
Is to travel the road of the Damned
Time has shown the fall of Rome
Disaster to would be
Changers of destiny

Lusting for power
On quest for control
Opposition devoured
Greed taking its toll

Shadow has arisen
A demon with a vision
All for the state
Generators of hate
Genocide intentions
Horror beyond
Comprehension
Erasing lives
And fueling their ascension
