

Fall In Place

Bry

I've told you more than once
It's entirely your call
And though I'll be a tourist
While you go through it all

Take my word I won't be sitting back
Or resemble who I've been from the start
I'll just drive your belly mad
With songs from my heart

I won't blame you for thinking I'm not cut out for this
But it will save me I know
I know I will cherish it
I'll cherish it

Say you'll stay
I'll be there to
Fall in place
I just want to hold your hand
I just want to hold your hand

To fall in love with this,
Something so delicate,
And suddenly all else
Becomes so irrelevant

Take my word I won't be sitting back
I'll be the first for every morning cry
And I'll drive our family mad
With songs about you and I

I won't blame you for thinking I'm not cut out for this
What's it take to believe that I'll always cherish it
I'll cherish it

Say you'll stay
I'll be there to
Fall in place
I just want to hold your hand
I just want to hold your hand

We'll never settle but our names will
And I'll be singing say you'll stay
'Til, 'til we're at the end

And when we're getting to our later days
And be living through what we create
I'll still fall in place

Say you'll stay
I'll be there to
Fall in place
I just want to hold your hand
I just want to hold your hand

Say you'll stay
I'll be there to

Fall in place

I just want to hold your hand
