

Hopeless

Bry

Do you recall the day
When our hearts were undone
And I was quite content
Not having anyone
I knew something would unfold at 22 years old
But I was in a band
I thought I was rock 'n' roll
Never cared for looks
So you wouldn't catch my eye
I didn't fall in love as you walked right by
But I misunderstood
And soon it was enough to know
I'd never let you go

But it's okay
To never be the same
At times it won't be easy
But nothing has to change
We're hopeless til the end

Do you recall the day
When our hearts were divided
I was quite content
Not opening my eyes
I could never apprehend
What social life intends
Quietly alone we're stories in the end
You wanted me to talk
I was happy to comply
Thinking all along you were just passing by
But I misunderstood
And soon it was enough
To know I'd never let you go

But it's ok
To never be the same
At times it won't be easy
But nothing has to change
We're hopeless til the end
There'll be better days
Tomorrow we'll get married
But nothing has to change
We're hopeless til the end

I distract your revision
I relax your crazed ambitions
If we were a perfect match
It wouldn't feel like this

But it's ok
To never be the same
There'll be better days

We're hopeless till the end
