

Anywhere But Here

Bryan Adams

I look around and what I see
Is you don't belong here, it's clear to me
What have you become?
You're really not this girl

There's more to this, so what's it gonna take?
To get you off the street, when do you get a break?
It's not what you wanted
This is not your world

I know where you'd choose to go
If you could disappear

Anywhere but here
Anywhere but here

You can feel somethin's comin'
You long to be free
You just wanna be
Anywhere but here

This sidewalk doesn't suit your soul
It's time to make some changes and take control
Find some room to move
Feel the wind in your hair

A clear blue sky and air to breathe
You know it's time to fly, and I believe
That there's so much more
And it's waiting for you out there

I can see where you wanna be
And it couldn't be more clear

Anywhere but here
Anywhere but here
You're waiting for somethin'
It's easy to see
You just wanna be
Anywhere but here

No more landlord, no more rent
Just a place of your own where you'd be content
To share it all with someone
Who'd share it all with you
I believe somehow some day this will all come true

Anywhere but here
Anywhere but here
You can feel somethin's comin'
You long to be free
You just wanna be

Anywhere but here
Anywhere but here
You're waiting for somethin'
It's easy to see

You just wanna be

Anywhere but here