

Homeless

Bryan Andrews

All these cigarettes a little tighter than I did with your hand
Cause I rather they'd be the reason of you burning in my chest
And you say, boy, you know I'll always be right here by your side
But what if that's a lie how will you explain the scars you left behind

Cause I know how this one ends
And baby I'm still broken and I don't wanna be this hopeless
But if it's true what they say and home is where the heart is
And then one day you'll see that you wanna leave me, homeless

I'm starting to think that all of the stories that my father told me are
Were just made of fairytales and pixie dust
I guess people walking down is just something I've grown used to
So if you know I won't hold it against you
Cause I'll have another sad song

Cause I know how this one ends
And baby I'm still broken and I don't wanna be this hopeless
But if it's true what they say and home is where the heart is
And then one day you'll see that you wanna leave me, homeless

I'm homeless, ooh...

Cause I know how this one ends
Baby, I'm still broken and I don't wanna be this hopeless, no
But if it's true what they say and home is where the heart is
And then one day you'll see that you wanna leave me, I'm homeless
