

Looks A Lot Like Me

Bryan Duncan

Oh! Ok!
Opportunity's knockin'
And you know it just won't go away
This boat's rockin'
Who's gonna save the day
Someone who's unpretentious
Undeniably noble and humble, too
So conscientous
Somebody who can say can do
Let's face it, makes me wanna smile
Looks a lot like me, ha!
Think I recognize my good side
Looks a lot like me, yeah
Forget it, deny it, but I can tell
Looks a lot like me
You can see that I'm the one
No problem
Looks a lot like me, yeah
Anyone could do
But I would likely be the one
[Well I would likely be the one]
Up the expectations
Signify by warm uplifted hand
No obligation
Who's gonna take the stand
We need a resolution
We need an unreluctant volunteer
And perfect execution
Yeah, that's all we need
We don't doubt, but don't get here
So now who's standin' first in line?
Looks a lot like me
Think I recognize my good side
Looks a lot like me, yeah
Forget it, deny it, but I can tell
Looks a lot like me
You can see that I'm the one
No problem
(Looks a lot like me, yeah)
Oh! Anyone could do
But I would likely be the one
[scat singing]
Oh, who decides if you're gonna have a good time?
(Looks a lot like me)
Who gets the job when nobody wants it?
(Looks a lot like me)
Who's goin' first if it looks a little dangerous?
(Looks a lot like me)
Yeah, who gets the credit if it doesn't get done?
(Looks a lot, looks a lot)
Oh, yeah!
Looks a lot like me
Think I recognize my good side
Looks a lot like me, yeah
Forget it, but I can, but I can tell
(Looks a lot like me)
