You told me a few times and I didn't believe
Now I see you packing the shit, tell me where you leaving
Baby girl I already know

All these niggas wanna be beside ya
All these hoes wanna be like ya
Looking at that ass you got behind me
Everything about a life that involves you
How you gon' tell me you ain't ready, I'm pathetic
But at night you'll be thinking bout me
Girl I'm cover, I ain't sober
[?] I'ma get you there, babe

Ooh, I put it on you like
Ooh, yeah

One minute you love me
The next minute you hate me
One minute saying fuck me
Then you calling me baby
So don't be wasting my time, my time, my time, my time
Can you make up your mind, your mind, your mind, your mind

You're taking me all across the world to find this trust, yeah

You've called me a few times and I didn't see it
And now you're sending me texts telling me how you feel
Baby girl I already know

All these niggas wanna be beside ya
All these hoes wanna be like ya
Looking at that ass you got behind me
Everything about a life that involves you
How you gon' tell me you ain't ready, I'm pathetic
But at night you'll be thinking bout me
Girl I'm cover, I ain't sober
[?] I'ma get you there, baby

Ooh, I put it on your like
Ooh, yeah

One minute you love me
The next minute you hate me
One minute saying fuck me
Then you calling me baby
So don't be wasting my time, my time, my time, my time
Can you make up your mind, your mind, your mind, your mind

You're taking me all round the world to find this trust, yeah
