

Healin'

Bryan Martin

I've held a bottle, before I held a baby
I held a lotta women, before I held a lady
And I've had the hard stuff, before I had Jesus
Yeah, this life's been rough, but I'm leaving the past in the dust

'Cause I may be hurt, aw but I ain't hurtin'
I may be broke, aw but I ain't broken
'Cause I've got some scars and a few hurt feelings
But I know a heathen, and he's doing some healin'

I've took some wrong turns, that led to forgiveness
I was sure my soul burned, but now I'm blessed
I was at my lowest when He called my name
Yeah, He reached down and took my hand, and He pulled me from the flames

'Cause I may be hurt, aw but I ain't hurtin'
I may be broke, aw but I ain't broken
'Cause I've got some scars and a few hurt feelings
But I know a heathen, and he's doing some healin'

'Cause I may be hurt, aw but I ain't hurtin'
I may be broke, aw but I ain't broken
'Cause I've got some scars and a few hurt feelings
But I know a heathen, and he's doing some healin'

Yeah, I know a heathen, and he's doing some healin'
