

Born To Be Somebody

Bryan White

Back when I was just a kid
Daddy said let me tell you this.
You're gonna be somebody someday.
Every time I look in your eyes,
I know my daddy was right 'cause I see the reason I was made.
All this time
I've been waiting wondering when
Hoping and praying but, Lord I think I've finally seen the light.
I was born to be somebody
Who will hold you for the rest of your life, promise you a dream or two, and make them come alive.
Finally found what I was put here for, what God made me to do.
I was born to be somebody.
Somebody who loves you...
Never felt like this before.
They don't make 'em like you anymore. You're better than I deserve...
All my life I've spent searching, waiting on love to pull back the curtain but, just one kiss from you made me believe...
Yeah I believe...
Ain't no way to get around it
That's just the way it is, when you're in love like this...
