

The Little Things

Bryan White

A yellow Post-It note on my steerin' wheel
A penciled hard reminder of the way you feel
Just a passing thought but it made me see
It's the little things that mean the world to me

Like your morning touch upon my skin
And your gentle kiss that wakes me up and does me in
You hold me close and it sets me free
It's the little things that mean the world to me

How you've changed my life there are no words
You're my Heaven you're my Earth and you're my universe
And when I add it up love's bigger than we ever dreamed
With the little things that mean the world to me

(yeah)

Your love's in the day to day way you show
Me the tiny miracles like the way you let me know
That up ahead we got something new
A little one that looks a lot like me and you
Tears fill my eyes as you kiss my cheek
It's the little things that mean the world to me

How you've changed my life there are no words
You're my Heaven you're my Earth and you're my universe
And when I add it up love's bigger than we ever dreamed
With the little things that mean the world to me

It's the little things that mean the world to me.
