

Moment Like This

BryanStars

You've got me screaming for a moment like this, a kiss like that.
Diamond don't miss me, cause I'll be back.

You know you're running through my head again, there you are.
Taken by your elegance, you stole my heart.
Now it seems like anytime we're apart.
The only place I wanna be is where you are.

Come with me I'll give you everything and anything you ask for.
Don't be shy, the world is yours tonight.
You are mine and I am yours
You've got your eyes on me, I could be your king,
If I could only be what you see in me.

You've got me screaming for a moment like this, a kiss like that.
Diamond don't miss me, cause I'll be back.
For a moment like this, a kiss like that.
You've got me screaming for it,
You've got me screaming for a moment like this, a kiss like that.
