

Greed

Bryant Barnes

You're trying my heart
Don't know if I can take it
I gave all my time, you show it, just to waste it
You're all that I have, let's retry
Just can't seem to make it
We're living a lie
So maybe we should face the truth
You've taken too much

I've got nothing left
So

Baby, what more can I give you?
Don't make it harder for me
I've given you everything
I suffocate when I kiss you
It's getting harder to breathe
You're turning love into greed

I'm sick and lost when you ask for more
God knows what I'm waiting for
I know what you need, but my heart is yours
It's harder to breathe
When you turn love into greed

Don't feel like I'm a ghost
Got caught in your thoughts
Am I the one that made you go?
Now or never, despite
But now my touch is getting colder
These days ain't over

So

Baby, what more can I give you?
Don't make it harder for me
I've given you everything
I suffocate when I kiss you
It's getting harder to breathe
You're turning love into greed

I'm sick and lost when you ask for more
God knows what I'm waiting for
I know what you need, but my heart is yours
It's harder to breathe
When you turn love into greed

(Ooh)
Don't make it so hard to breathe
Look what you're doing to me
(Ooh)
It's getting harder to breathe
You're turning love into greed, greed, greed (Oh)
It's getting harder to breathe
You're turning love into greed
