

Heaven

Bryant Barnes

Spent too much time on the wrong things
Baby, I was so lost
I couldn't see light from the darkness
And you came alone
So how could you plan it?
From not knowing who to trust?
Baby don't make me
Just between the two of us (Oh)

I wanna go to heaven (Heaven)
Are you gonna take me there?
Limitless affection (Affection)
You're the reason that I'm still here breathing
Tell me that your love's never leaving
'Cause it gives me life, girl, I need it
I wanna go to heaven (Heaven)
Baby, can you take me there?

You mention mansions, attention grabbing, new-found compassion
People persuade you doing anything
And I don't judge on my account, I'm silent
That can't be the reason why I'm trying now
You're my favorite of all time and
I'm just praying they sleep on you all night 'cause I
Need all your sympathy, just you by my side (My side)
I need your love in my life

I wanna go to heaven (In this life)
Are you gonna take me there? (Can you take me there?)
Limitless affection (All the time)
You're the reason that I'm still here breathing (Can you feel my love?)
Tell me that your love's never leaving
'Cause it gives me life, girl, I need it
I wanna go to heaven (Heaven)
Baby, can you take me there? (Take me)

(Are you gonna take me?)
(Limitless affection)
(You're the reason that I'm still here breathing)
