

Losing You

Bryant Barnes

If we're beyond saving
Why do you stay?
Am I losing you?
When did it change?
I'm so afraid
Is there someone new?

Not enough, was it not enough for me
On 'n off, we've been on 'n off forever

Said it's been too much for you lately
And I've been too much for your heart (oh)
I can't give it all to you, baby
I don't wanna tear us apart (no)

If we're beyond saving
Why do you stay?
Am I losing you?
When did it change?
I'm so afraid
Is there someone new?
If you ain't in love
Does it matter what I do?
If we're beyond saving
Why don't you say?
That I'm losing you?

Not in love, am I not in love with you?
Thought I'd want, oh I thought I'd want this forever

Said it's been too much for you lately
And I've been too much for your heart (oh)
I can't give it all to you, baby
I don't wanna tear us apart (no)

If we're beyond saving
Why do you stay?
Am I losing you?
When did it change?
I'm so afraid
Is there someone new?
If you ain't in love
Does it matter what I do?
If we're beyond saving
Why don't you say?
That I'm losing you?
