

My Everything

Bryant Barnes

Fool me with your eyes, fool me with the lies I still hold on to Do I not suffice? Is it not enough that I still love you?
Can you turn around and tell me that you had a change of mind?
But tell me where to find somebody that could heal my soul like you do

Look at what you did to me

Used to love the sky when I'd watch the stars alone
Used to love the night when I'd walk the streets back home
Let you into my life, now my heart is not my own
Just for you to leave, now I can't live without you
Oh, I can't believe, I can't live without you

Fool me one more time, it would mean the world to see you smile
Tell me that it's real, even if it's for a little while Promise we'll be fine, 'cause nothing else will ever feel the same
And don't you let me down, 'cause you promised me you'll never leave

Look at what you did to me

Used to love the sky when I'd watch the stars alone
Used to love the night when I'd walk the streets back home
Let you into my life, now my heart is not my own
Just for you to leave, now I can't live without you
Oh, I can't believe, I can't live without you

Take my hand and runaway with me
Can't you see that you're my everything?
Take my hand and stay with me
Baby don't you leave, I can't live without you
Oh, I can't believe, I can't live without you
