

Windowsill

Bryant Barnes

How many tears have I cried?
Every river's jealous
How many days into nights?
Here without you

I don't mind I'll wait for you
'Cause that's what love would do
Leaves fall
Then grow and fall again
But I'll be here
At the windowsill

How many steps to my door?
In my dreams, you walk them all
You're in the light of the moon
Promise me you'll be here soon

I'll wait for you
'Cause that's what love would do
Leaves fall
Then grow and fall again
But I'll be here

To watch the world outside
Slowly pass me by
Everything will change
I'll still remain
Where the time won't pass
Frozen hourglass
Memories won't fade
'Cause I'll still remain

I don't mind I'll wait for you
'Cause that's what love would do
Leaves fall
Then grow and fall again
But I'll be here
At the windowsill
